Pathways to Adulthood

The Pathways course has been designed to prepare entry level learners with an EHCP for independent life beyond college.

Who is this course for?

- Young people aged 16–25 with an EHCP
- Learners working at Entry Level
- Those needing to develop confidence, independence and readiness for adult life

What is the purpose of the course?

- Focus on real-life outcomes, support aligned to EHCP outcomes
- Develop employability and life skills
- Prepare for meaningful long-term outcomes
- Focus on real-world skills and personal development

What will learners study?

- Employment and future options (experience of work, finding and applying for a job, interviews)
- Independent living (travel, budgeting, daily life skills, money management)
- Community participation (social skills, community engagement)
- Health and wellbeing (resilience, routines, personal and health care, staying safe)
- Functional Skills in Maths and English

How is the course delivered?

Small, supportive classes, real-life, practical activities, progress tracked through individual targets and outcomes.

What are the progression routes?

- Supported internships or employment
- Further study (Entry Level or Level 1)
- Volunteering or community opportunities
- Greater independence in adult life

Why choose Pathways to Adulthood?

This course is designed for learners who are developing their independence and everyday life skills. If you have already completed a Life and Living or Independence Skills course and achieved an Entry Level 2, Entry Level 3, or Level 1 qualification, you may wish to consider a more advanced progression route.
